

DAMPENER MACHINE BUCKET

Bucket Dampener Machine is used for giving humidity of cereals. This product comes to the rotor which shape is circular ladle. With rounding of the rotor turns to the disc which carrying of water in buckets. Water is carried by the bucket to next part which is supported on the center of the disc and water flows to tempering spiral. The number of the plastic buckets setting with respect to amount of water. The parts which are contacting with water and these parts are made of fiberglass material, which has advantage is high corrosion resistance. Especially, Bucket dampener machine with double reservoir are used in lentil plants. Water passing into first, giving oil from other. Enshining process is provided with mixing of water and oil in conveyor. Machine has no need for any energy consumption.

GPS-ASCOM
Manufacturing Production Lines

GPS-ASCOM